

TRINITY INTERNATIONAL

Bachelor of Arts in English Studies

& Literature

Degree Study Programme Syllabus

English Essay and English Literature Format

Welcome to the new English Essay and English Literature Degree Programme.

The aim of this general English degree is establish a love of good essay writing and an introduction to English literature. You will need to understand the meaning and practise of essay writing using the reference section of the internet, selected course books and good essay styles and practise.

All assignments are essay based with course essay submitted sent by attachment or by mail to your tutor. Twenty four essays of approx. 2500 words are required and the Pass mark is 75%. For those who have English related qualifications diplomas and or experience full transfer credits are allowed with supplied evidences on a case by case basis.

This will result in the amount of essays to be submitted to that candidate been lower. Please not you will need to purchase two text books for this course as all the other required reading can be read on line as e-books following the links provided

Part 1

How to write a good essay.

Good Essay Writing: A Social Sciences Guide (Published in association with The Open University) (Paperback) by Peter Redman (Author)

Part 2

The Essays

A university plans to develop a new research centre in your country. Some people want a centre for business research. Other people want a centre for research in agriculture (farming). Which of these two kinds of research centres do you recommend for your country? Give reasons of your recommendation.

Part 3

Survey of English Literature

4 Essays on the life, work, style and contribution of three of the selected authors from the list below. When enrolled you will be directed to prescribe readings for each author.

Full details of 24 essays will be given on enrolment with books and guide.